

Customized task Feature:

This feature can add task and evenly distribute work load among works based on points.

Only the manager can assign a point value to tasks. In the task menu, task and points are displayed. After clicking the add button, the manager will need to add a task and a point value to that task.